

Katherine Elizabeth (Milliner)

Katherine Elizabeth is a London based, multi-award winning milliner, whose achievements include, Profile and the Dzina Fashion Awards. She has been dubbed, by Evening Standard, as "The Queen of the hat".

This year Katherine Elizabeth has been selected into the prestigious Walpole Crafted Scheme

Katherine Elizabeth Millinery constantly pushes the boundaries for strong conceptual creations and show stopping collections. As well as designing for her eponymous label, Katherine has also worked with top designers including Stephen Jones Couture and Catherine Delany. She has also had the opportunity to create for John Galliano, House of Dior and Asudari shows at Paris Fashion Week

This year saw the debut of Katherine as a guest presenter on the BBC's Royal Ascot screening besides her stage and film contributions including the 2011 Downton Abbey release

The highly acclaimed Couture Designer Millinery Events. are held throughout the UK where guests will be immersed into the sumptuous world of millinery couture as Katherine Elizabeth takes them on an adventure of millinery techniques, and hat etiquette.

Client list includes Coutts bank, RBS, RBC, Kleinwort Benson, KPMG, Aviva, L'Oreal, and EMG. She has also partnered with Benefit Cosmetics, The Blue Bird Chelsea, Morton's members Club, Petersham nurseries and The Grosvenor Hotel for a different twist. Besides being popular amongst the corporates, the events are also great fun for up-market hen-do's.

Her masterpiece creations are also adorned by Dita Von Teese, Lily Allen, Shingai Shoniwa from The Noisettes.