

LOMBARD STREET

RESTAURANT · BAR · BRASSERIE

DOME BAR & THE LOMBARD CLUB

1 Lombard Street is steeped in banking history. In fact, the area was considered the Wall Street of its time. One of the earliest recordings of the Grade II-listed building dates back to 1776 when Smith, Payne & Smith bank was located to the rear of the building in Plough Court. The father of Charles Dickens' first love, Maria Beadnell, was a manager of the bank and the young Dickens would walk to 1 Lombard Street in the early hours just to gaze upon the place.

Please note a discretionary service charge of 15% will be added to your total bill. Prices include VAT at the current rate.

COCKTAILS TO TAKE AWAY

18

The Junction

200ml

Originally named "The Guildford" created by Jason Knowles.

The idea of a white Vieux Carre has found its forever home here atop Bank junction. Jensen's Dry gin, Noilly Prat Vermouth & D.O.M Benedictine with Maraschino & orange bitters.

Short, clean & complex.

(S)*

Pink Vesper

200ml

Jensen's dry gin, Kettle One vodka, Cocchi Rossa, Maraschino & Peychaud's bitters. Lemon zest helps the aromas pop in this candied, contemporary take on James Bond's classic shaken martini.

Short, fruity, punchy.

THE LOMBARD CLUB

The City's best kept secret.

We know that sometimes you want to dig deep and hide away with a stiff drink in hand, which is why we've converted our downstairs dining space into an underground drinking den for private members, complete with sink-in sofas, top-shelf liquor and Mark Hix's personal collection of quirky art hung from corner to corner.

An atmospheric and intimate space, yet versatile enough to host business meetings, late-night drinks and even a romantic tryst, The Lombard Club is the perfect hideaway from the hustle and bustle of city life.

Just ask a member of our team for a sneak peek...

Annual joining fee is £650.00, including VAT.
